	CLASSIFICATION
COUNTRY	Germany (Soviet Tone) REPORT NO.
COOM -	25X1
TOPEC	PARTON STATES AND STAT
	25X1A
EVALUATION_	Sec below PCONFIDENCE
DATE OF CON	00 '
5X1 Date obtain	EDDATE PREPARED_ 29 May 1951
REFERENCES
PAGES	ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE)
REMARKS	A Company of the Comp
	DO NOT CIRCULA
25X1A
1.	On 4 May 1951, at 4 p.m., 36 single-engine aircraft and 4 trainengine transports were seen at Staaken airfield. The single-engine cransports were seen at Maaken airtigid, ine single- engine planes were of the same type as the aircraft seen in (-	Doeberitz.
2.	On 3 Tay at about 12:15 p.m., 34 single-engine ground attack sircraft and 2 biplanes were parked in front of the hangers at the Tield. Three patrols "earing black-bordered blue engulers were seen near the underground tank installations in the northern section of the field. Twin-engine transports, coming from the north. landed at the field at about 8 n.m. Six transports had landed by 8:45 p.m. The landing procedure still continued at 11 c.m. No searchlight was in operation. There was no flying at the field between 20 April and 4 May.
2.	On 5 Part 14 tests and the tests and
3.
3.	a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more
3.	a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternment honors
3.	at the field up to 8 a.m. hen passing along the field at 8:15 a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangers immediately after the
3.	a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangers immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod enterns a tark truck of the
•	a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangars immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in
25X1A	at the field up to 8 a.m. hen passing along the field at 8:15 a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangers immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field.
	at the field up to 8 a.m. hen passing along the field at 8:15 a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangers immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 ay, 18 single-ensine low-wing monophanes
25X1A	at the field up to 8 a.m. hen passing along the field at 8:15 a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangers immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 ay, 18 single-ensine low-wing monophanes with in-line engines
25X1A	at the field up to 8 a.m. hen passing along the field at 8:15 a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangers immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 ay, 18 single-ensine low-wing monophanes with in-line engines parked in front of hangers at the field. Local flying was
25X1A 4.	at the field up to 8 a.m. hen passing along the field at 8:15 a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangars immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 ay, 18 single-ensine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines parked in front of hangars at the field. Local flying was practiced with 13 additional planes.
25X1A 4.	at the field up to 8 a.m. hen passing along the field at 8:15 a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangers immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 ay, 18 single-ensine low-wing monophanes with in-line engines parked in front of hangers at the field. Local flying was practiced with 13 additional planes.
25X1A 4.	at the field up to 8 a.m. hen passing along the field at 8:15 a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangars immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 ay, 18 single-ensine low-wing monophanes with in-line engines parked in front of hangars at the field. Local flying was practiced with 13 additional planes. Comment. The information supplied
25X1A 4.	a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangars immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 ay, 18 single-engine low-wing monoplanes with in-line engines parked in front of hangars at the field. Local flying was practiced with 13 additional planes. 25X1A Comment. The information supplied indicates that the occupation of the field by tree results.
25X1A 4.	at the field up to 8 a.m. hen passing along the field at 8:15 a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangars immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 ay, 18 single-ensine low-wing monophanes with in-line engines parked in front of hangars at the field. Local flying was practiced with 13 additional planes. Comment. The information supplied
25X1A 4.	at the field up to 8 a.m. hen passing along the field at 8:15 a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangars immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 ay, 18 single-engine low-wing monophanes with in-line engines parked in front of hangars at the field. Local flying was practiced with 13 additional planes. The information supplied indicates that the occupation of the field by one ground attack regiment and one signature squadron has not changed.
25X1A 4.	at the field up to 8 a.m. hen passing along the field at 8:15 a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangars immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 way, 18 single-engine low-wing monophanes with in-line engines parked in front of hangars at the field. Local flying was practiced with 13 additional planes. 25X1A Comment. The information supplied lindicates that the occupation of the field by one ground attack regiment and one planes. CLASSIFICATION TECRETY
25X1A 4.	a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangars immediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 ay, 18 single-engine low-wing monophanes with in-line engines parked in front of hangars at the field. Local flying was practiced with 13 additional planes. The information supplied lindicates that the occupation of the field by one ground attack regiment and one field. CLASSIFICATION Re Change in Glass.
25X1A 4.	a.m. no transports were seen on the landing field although more aircraft approached the field for landing. The easternmost hange was open and housed a large number of transports. It is believed that the aircraft taxied into the hangars inmediately after the landing. A radio truck with a rod antenna, a tank truck, a fire truck, and two other trucks were parked at the take-off point in the northwestern corner of the field. On the afternoon of 8 way, 18 single-engine low-wing monophanes with in-line engines parked in front of hangars at the field. Local flying was practiced with 13 additional planes. 25X1A Comment. The information supplied indicates that the occupation of the field by one ground attack regiment and one with field by one ground attack regiment and one with squadron has not changed.